Hello! I welcome you to come and learn more about the movement, music, and culture of FLAMENCO - a beautiful folk art that originated with the Gypsies of Southern Spain, Andalusia. In my classes we'll work on a particular choreography, but the focus is on compas (rhythm), footwork (taconeo), arm and hand work (braceo y manos), handclapping (palmas), musical understanding, and mostly... fun!

Vaya a Bailar! Let's Dance!

Phoebe Vernier "La Fibi" is one of SF's premier Flamenco Dancers. She has studied, taught and performed Flamenco Dance since 1982. She has studied in Spain and in the U.S. with La Monica, La Tania, Isa Mura, Rosa Montoya, Maria Magdalena, Jose Antonio, La Tati, Farruquita, Maria Benitez, Luis Ortega, Rafael Campallo, Jose Galvan, Belen Maya, Rocio Molina, Eva "La Yerbabuena" and Juana Amaya. La Fibi has performed extensively in the Bay Area as a featured Soloist. She has danced in the companies of Rosa Montoya's Bailes Flamencos, La Tania Music and Dance, Theatre Flamenco of San Francisco, and has toured nationally with The Boston Flamenco Ballet, The Company of Rinaldo Rincon, the renowned Maria Benitez Spanish Dance Company, and the Madrid based "Compania Noche Flamenca" at the Hollywood Bowl. She was a member of the Sol y Luna Band and Cuadro Flamenco for six years, where she sang and danced Flamenco/Salsa fusion, as well as traditional flamenco. She currently teaches extensively in Petaluma, Sonoma County and performs in San Francisco with Arte y Compas, and Toque Flamenco. She is the Artistic Director of LA FIBI FLAMENCO, and presents the Bay Area's finest flamenco artists in her shows - FLAMENCO! LIVE! Proud Winner of The North Bay Bohemian's Readers Poll - BEST DANCE COMPANY 2007! Thank you, Sonoma County!
